Case New Holland will continue offering both red, blue equipment

It grieves us that there are no people, and that there is no order from the Honorable Directors to occupy the same. These product lines have been developed over time to deliver the features and performance required by these distinct customer groups.

Polaris CEO Scott Wine resigns, will lead the parent company of Case and New Holland

Although CNH Industrial's in recent years, with approximately 27. It produces different kinds of woods, suitable for building houses and ships, whether large or small, consisting of oaks of various kinds, as post-oak, white smooth bark, white rough bark, gray bark, black bark, and still another kind which they call, from its softness, butter oak, the poorest of all, and not very valuable; the others, if cultivated as in the Netherlands, would be equal to any Flemish or Brabant oaks. I will be using it for dragging our riding ring, bush hogging, moving shavings and manure piles, and some snow removal.
