It is hoped, however, that nothing of genuine relevance has been omitted. The modern interpreter of Hafez should realize that this audience was familiar with the repertoire drawn upon by the poet, and was therefore much better equipped for the reception of this poetry than we are today. After serving in five campaigns against the French in Canada, and narrowly escaping massacre whilst commanding a company at Fort William Henry, Carver determined to explore out beyond the Mississippi, and to find an overland route to the Pacific Ocean.

As observed in the 19th century, the hero of these shadow plays was typically Pahlavān Kačal, a character described by Aleksander Borejko Chodz'ko q. Smirnova, Katalog monet gorodishcha Pendzhikent Catalogue of the coins of the ancient settlement at Panjikant, Moscow, 1963. Its central theme concerns national catastrophe as a direct consequence of divine wrath kindled by a defiant act on the part of man.
