Celtic - Protector of horses, donkeys, and mules. Questa visione del mondo e questa spiritualità venivano codificate in una serie di immagini, di forme e di simboli che costituiscono il linguaggio della Dea e che gli antichi riportavano sulle pareti di templi, di grotte, di tombe e su oggetti rituali, ma anche su utensili usati nella vita di tutti i giorni. But if you like this kind of research and want to look at the symbols of the ancient Goddess culture to understand the origins this is a fascinating book.

All three goddesses were ideally beautiful and Paris could not decide between them, so they resorted to bribes. Aphrodite was the patron goddess of all varieties, ranging from cheap typically owned as slaves by wealthy to expensive, well-educated hired companions, who were usually self-employed and sometimes provided sex to their customers. Beginning with a short Foreword by Joseph Campbell and an Introduction by the author, this book is illustrated on nearly every page by multiple photos and drawings of the artifacts being discussed.
