The American Question Abroad in the Civil War, Part 1

Bright condemned the policy of the Crimean War from the very beginning, and he was denounced and abused for his utterances, which latter represented the opinion of all rational Englishmen. But his action was never guided for a single moment by any consideration of personal or party selfishness. In the House of Commons his progress was slower.

John Bright

We are guilty of culpable negligence if we fail to employ all the means which are legally and properly within our reach to bring to a close, at the earliest practicable day, the struggle which now desolates and depopulates our land.

Staunch Brexiteer Bill Cash MP wrote a biography of John Bright, to whom he is distantly related Image: Getty Images His distant relative, the veteran MP Bill Cash, published a biography on him entitled John Bright: Statesman, Orator, Agitator. Let us pass to another matter.

The two sides of John Bright, the mill

As Bright had foreseen, the campaign wasted many lives. The war effectively ended in April 1865 when Confederate General surrendered his troops to Union General at in Virginia. We may build up anew that institution in violation of law, it is true, for neither the President, nor Congress, nor any judicial tribunal in the land has any more authority to consign a freedman to slavery than they have to hang him without crime or trial; but we may build it up if we have power enough, or connive at it if we are shameless enough, just as a highwayman may seize a purse or a burglar carry off a basket of silverware.

John Bright

In a general way, however, a belligerent does not become the legal owner of any personal property belonging to his enemy so long as it is still in that enemy's hands. Educated at Ackworth School, she was a woman of great strength of character and refined taste.
