Employment discrimination law in the European Union

Here, however, there is a clear indication at step one that at least §§1962 b and c apply to all transnational patterns of racketeering, subject to the stated limitation. The alleged pattern of racketeering activity consists of five basic predicates: 1 money laundering, 2 material support of foreign terrorist organizations, 3 mail fraud, 4 wire fraud, and 5 violations of the Travel Act.

of the equal treatment law. Mediation Equal treatment legislation does not specifically mention mediation as a task of the ETC.

The Dutch Equal Treatment Act in Theory and Practice

The Race Equality Directive requires the establishment of specific enforcement agencies or bodies like the ETC and many European countries already have some kind of a national institution. It is worth noting that the ETA does not speak of discrimination.
