While leftists would be foolish to argue that a Hitler-esque figure will never again emerge, they should also not pretend that tin-pot dictators such as Putin, Kim Jong-un, and Bashar al-Assad are existential threats akin to the Nazi tyrant. Soviet reality is an equilibrium between these two tendencies.

Germany

Unlike Roosevelt, however, Wilson believed that such actions must be as free from the taint of self-interest as possible. Defending the West requires Germany to grasp the bigger picture of great-power rivalries and relearn the art of strategy.

Germany

Quan Li and Rafael Reuveny conclude that there is a negative relationship between trade openness and democracy, as do Francisco Rodriguez and Dani Rodrik. On the other hand, the government revenues were diminishing. This is a serious fact.

This painting depicts The Storming of the Bastille in July 1789, which is widely regarded as the most iconic event of the Revolution. What to Do with the Philippines? The events of 1793 and 1794, however, challenged the simple interpretation of the French Revolution as a chapter of unfolding triumph of republican government over monarchy. Trade restrictions can successfully convey a threat of invasion even if their economic impact is negligible, while human rights offenders might care more about their moral standing in the international community than the effects of sanctions on their economic welfare.
