How the second Vatican council responded to the modern world

These things we must remedy.

How the second Vatican council responded to the modern world

We should be eager for the opportune moment and sense the preciousness of time. Conference of Catholic Bishops put it in one of its tributes. It is Our dearest wish that all those valuable discussions concerning Christian perfection which have gone on for so many centuries in the Church, shall once again receive the importance they deserve and arouse the faithful, not indeed to formulate new rules of spirituality, but to generate new energies in striving after the holiness which Christ has taught us.

How the second Vatican council responded to the modern world

Mary, a Most Loving Teacher 57. His pontificate was confronted with the problems and uncertainties of a church facing a new role in the contemporary world.

How the second Vatican council responded to the modern world

In this historic moment, humanity needs to see gestures of peace and to hear words of hope. They force us to go more deeply into the subject of our investigations and to find better ways of expressing ourselves.
