Kalidas

Dainty dishes of cakes and sweets were used to be prepared 3 52.

Kumara

His knowledge of scientific astronomy was manifestly gleaned from Greek sources, and altogether he appears to have been a product of the great synthesis of Indian and barbarian peoples and cultures that was taking place in north-western India in his day. Includes a Preface, a translation of the Bhāva-Sangraha of Śrī Rāghavendra Tīrtha, the Yamaka-Bhārata, a list of authorities, and a concordance.
