The Department Store Museum: John Wanamaker, New York

April 5, 2015 Anonymous Loved That Store!! In 1919, El Mundo, a Spanish newspaper said of its New York store that it was 100 special departments all under one roof, including El Departamento de Latino-Americano de Servicio Personal The Department of Personal Service for Latin-Americans. ALTMAN- BARNEYS AT 17TH- IT WAS SFA - THEY HAD JUST THE ONE I WANTED-I WORKED A BLOCK FROM BLOOMINGDALES - I SPENT MANY LUNCH BREAKS A BLOOMIES -LUNCH ON THE 7TH FLOOR - I MISS MOST OF THE LONG GONE STORES - I AM SUCH A CYBER SHOPPER - THX FOR THE MEMORIES agbjr I have a dim memory of going to Wanamaker's in New York City with my mother.

John Wanamaker

Just give the store a call. He was a devout Baptist, married but no children. Anonymous my great grandmother was a waitress at the Crystal TEA room - in the 1930's - she supported my grandmother and her 5 kids - as her husband was out of work - I went to a wedding there - and was saddened and amazed that she could do all she did - but the times were still OK for some and they dined and made it possible for my family to go on - Anonymous Perhaps Lawndale girl could also relate to the following.

What a Hundred

Loved the Christmas display and music in the Court, the decorative water fountains with the perfumed water. It is to be awarded to a person male or female who, being a non-Mason, supports the ideals and philosophy of the.

Mary Johnstone was an incredible fashion illustrator who created many of the ads for Gimbel's in the Post-Gazette, and the Sunday Roto Section. It was a Lord and Taylor back in 2001 when my dad and I went to Philadelphia for the NCAA East Regional Final. ALSO: The Crystal Tea Room Thanks Be To God! Penny I remember the bear on a swing and I also remember the sound and sight of the colorful fountain display at Christmas.

The John Wanamaker Store

He soon hit his stride, though, instituting technological advances like to the main post office; debuting the commemorative stamp; establishing 5,000 new rural mail routes; greatly expanding the parcel-post delivery system, enabling the growth of mail orders; and banning the sale of state lottery tickets through the mail, effectively ending state lotteries in the U. The organ still stands in place in the store today and free recitals are held twice every day except Sunday. My mother was born in 1934 and her father died shortly after, supposedly from lead poisoning from the nails used in the making of the shoes.

Wanamaker's

There was also a balcony café, the Terrace on the Court, on the third floor facing the Grand Court, where shoppers could hear the Wanamaker Organ as they dined.
