A great way to truly experience the island and its many attractions is by hiking the 200-kilometer Anglesey Coastal Path, part of the much longer Wales Coastal Path. You can spot this with the towering mountains behind it! Parking at Bethania Bridge car park, or lay-by off the A498 at Nant Gwynant. Part of the Llangollen Canal, it is perhaps unsurprisingly one of the most popular stretches of inland waterway thanks to its magnificent scenery, and, of course, the chance to boat across the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct.

Homes to Let in North Wales

Our book has Leather Binding on Spine and Corners with Golden Leaf Printing on round Spine. Accommodation: Located in Tremadog Bay on a wooded peninsula between Porthmadog and Harlech, Portmeirion is famous the world over for being a replica in miniature of a picturesque Italian village. Its exterior walls are some five meters thick, with solid corner towers, and enclose the square inner courtyard.

Bouldering in North Wales — UKBOULDER

Parking in Llandudno town centre, or at West Shore. If you are traveling with kids be sure to spend time at the newest addition to this top attraction: Legends of the Sky.
