Arthur Stratton

MARÉCHAL JOFFRE, 1916 THE American Field Service may justly claim four titles of distinction. Forgetting to do so led to multiple accidents as people fell down elevator shafts.

Important Black Women in American History

Left Paris April, 1915; became Section 626, September, 1917.

History

Every circumstance of the time pointed to the possibility of successfully developing an ambulance service, conducted by American volunteers, and supported by American donors, but working directly in the French army zone as part and parcel of the French Army.

1930

NIGHT DUTY AND AN ADDED SECTOR A KILOMETRE up the climbing winding road was a lone poste de secours in the woods just off the highway.

British and American Voluntary Organizations in Liberated Bergen

Truman officially declared June 14 as Flag Day. But this very fact had two compensating advantages. On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress passed an act establishing an official flag for the new nation.

10 Things You May Not Know About Jesse Owens

Rumors - An Optimist I Changed my Mind - L.

Sanitary Commission: Importance in the US Civil War

If an ambulance service was to function promptly and without interruption, it must be composed of cars for the repair of which stocks of interchangeable spare parts were always available. The dust is powdery and comes off easily, however, so one can get comfortable in a short time.
