The Monsiuer Lecoq Chronology

In a 1904 translation The Widow Lerouge published by Charles Scribners and Sons, Tabaret woked for an unnamed pawnbroker chap. But he seems to be a friend of yours.

The Blackmailers: Dossier No. 113 by Émile Gaboriau, Ernest Tristan

Alexandre Dumas Antecedents of Gaboriau are mysterious.

Monsieur Lecoq

Our book has Leather Binding on Spine and Corners with Golden Leaf Printing on round Spine. Hope you will like it and give your comments and suggestions. The best chapters in the book are the early ones, dealing with the initial investigation of the crime, especially the elaborate detection in Chapter 3.

Blackmailers: Dossier No. 113 (Detective Club Crime Classics)

If Gaboriau didnt mention a specific year in the novels like he did in LAffaire Lerouge and Le Dossier No.

File No. 113 by Emile Gaboriau

Green, like most later 19th Century mystery writers, is highly indebted to Gaboriau.

The Blackmailers: Dossier No. 113 (Detective Club Crime Classics): Emile Gaboriau: 9780008137526: Telegraph bookshop

One always feels in Gaboriau that he is conscious of being a pioneer in the mystery genre, and that he is carefully feeling his way, experimenting with different aspects of the genre.

Monsieur Lecoq

A bank's secure safe is robbed. Count de Tremorel marries Sauvresys widow. Jenny must have had one heck of a makeover.
