Ho Chi Minh Biography

Although it proved a military fiasco for the North and the allied Viet Cong, it was a propaganda coup for Ho Chi Minh and the communists. With immense love for the people, in 1911, he left the fatherland to go to the West to find the way of national liberation.

Ho Chi Minh's Education, Rise, Beliefs

Unfortunately, it came at the expensive cost of 1 million lives and division among Vietnamese people until today. Introduction to Communism As drew to a close in 1918, leaders of the European powers decided to meet and hash out an armistice in Paris.

Ho Chi

Thanks to American fears that Ho Chi Minh's Viet Minh would win these elections they never took place. The league called for independence, redistribution of land, fair taxation, and equal rights for men and women.

Ho Chi

Six months later the United States dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima, and the Japanese were totally defeated. In this phase of his career, Ho acted more as an arbiter of conflicts among the various factions, allowing the organization of revolutionary action, rather than as an initiator.
