Letters from Georgia, v. 14201, 1735 June

Oglethorpe dated at Savannah 4th July 1735.

New England and the Bavarian Illuminati/Chapter I

But considerations of party advantage fall far short of furnishing a full explanation of the general sense of alarm the people of New England experienced on account of the open hostility to religion which they saw manifest in France. Hovr I delighted to wander up and down that long street, whose simple houses of wood border the magnificent channel of Boston, and whose full stores offer me all the productions of the continent which I had quitted! The subjoined scriptural illustrations of these articles contain much acute and ingenious criticism on the texts which have been chiefly insisted on, on both sides of this controversy; but his concessions of the title God, as applied to Christ, and of the distinct personality of the Holy Spirit, involve his argument in difficulties and obscurities, of which an expert opponent would not fail to take great advantage.

Letter From a Pilgrim — A Message from the Mayflower

In these papers it has been chiefly discussed as one of the two principal branches of the general Evangelical movement. But opposed as he was to prevailing influences, he was yet a man of his time.

The Works of Richard Hooker, vol. 1

Cassandra and I thank him hath saved me much trouble; there is a spirit in his remarks which honesty only can inspire, and a uniformity in the conduct of his letters which the want of principle can never arrive at. Would you prefer the state of men in the woods, to that of men in a more improved situation? There are now, however, three or four biographies of him, especially the full and interesting memoir published in 1860 by Mr.

Many incidental remarks, however, which have a direct bearing upon the search into evidences will be found scattered here and there in the course of this work. It evinces that the love of order and of the laws is prevalent in that country.

Chapter XI: 1796

Conservatism became in their eyes a sort of religious principle from which they could not deviate without peril of treason to their faith. Fitzwalter to be employed in the Garden.

Sample Celebration Letters

I have continued to do this every night since. Thus the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge was founded, and gathered round the table of its committee-room men of very different opinions, but all filled with the same earnest desire to promote God's glory, and to make an earnest effort to stem the irreligion of the times.

THE ENGLISH CHURCH IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY by Charles J. Abbey and John H. Overton

I have by this opportunity conveyed Letters from Mr. Boyse brought the affair before a meeting of the presbyterian ministers in Dublin, who seem to have been allowed to exercise a sort of controul and inquisitorial interference in the concerns of other congregations, which those of us who in this country still call ourselves by that name are at a loss to comprehend, A conference took place between Mr. Baring, as I think he will be much better prepared for the purpose, when the conveyances are ready to be delivered to him.
