Dachau Concentration Camp: Facts and Memorial

It must be therefore, since the enemies of the Jews belonged to the most diverse races, since they lived in countries very distant from each other, since they were ruled by very different laws, governed by opposite principles, since they had neither the same morals, nor the same customs, since they were animated by unlike dispositions which did not permit them to judge of anything in the same way, it must be therefore that the general cause of anti-Semitism has always resided in Israel itself and not in those who have fought against Israel. The exploitation, though painful, will eventually cause dysfunction at which point we will have a chance to do a better job next time. The last resort was Shanghai, but the thought of moving to such a strange land was unappealing.
