School

Take a look at vacancies in our state affiliates below. It has released a series of podcasts that feature young adults who have been trained through the public workforce system and are currently working in different allied health occupations. Are you an intern and have a concern about your internship, were injured, or had an uncomfortable situation with a person at your internship site? The activities include accounting and financial reporting, audit preparation, regulatory compliance cash management, and payroll and employee benefits.

Work

The project included a new wing for the school — with a community center, gymnasium, and commons area, among other additions — and renovations to the original 1921 structure. To have us come to your school, call 503-988-3030 or Workshops for Parents and Caring Adults Our workshops for parents, foster parents and other caring adults can help you to talk to young people about sex, sexuality and healthy relationships.
