The Christian woman's search for self

This is to say that humanistic psychology rejects the truth of the Fall, which includes original sin and total depravity. But, our illustration has not ended.

The Christian Woman's Search For Selfesteem by W Peter Blitchington

I only mention in passing, that it is also possible that husbands and wives, even in the church, rather than to build each other up, can live with each other wickedly so that, I will not say they destroy the other's self-esteem you cannot do that to a child of God - God's word is victorious nevertheless, they can tear at each other's self-esteem and damage it dreadfully.

This opens up the door wide to Arminianism.

Is Good Self

As Christians, we know that our choices—good or bad—ultimately have nothing to do with our identity, which is grounded in the finished work of Christ. Daily, as long as I live, although I am a born-again, converted believer, I must deeply and thoroughly know my misery as a sinner.

The Christian's Self

How do we maintain a well-based sense of self-esteem? You can pray it right now, and Jesus Christ will come into your life, just as he promised. Believers, therefore, are glorious creatures who cannot be esteemed highly enough.

Is Good Self

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. No matter how hard we try, once we have sinned, we are separated from God. The depressed self-esteem further hammers our self-confidence.
