News from true cultivators : letters to the Venerable Abbot Hua : Heng Sure, 1949

It is a small problem and it feels good to be working. This desire to kill, this feeling that comes with wanting to kill someone! Also when people ask you questions, you should have one person assigned to answer. He was here for three days while we bowed.

The Zen Practice Of Prostrations

Every joint, muscle, and limb is speaking its own pain dharma but this will gradually disappear as the work progresses and our bodies adjust. I remember when I was married--a secretary, fine clothes, perfumes, good salary, living for weekends and 5:00 p. Our lunch comes from several Dharma protecting upasikas.

Just as we approach the truck pulls up for unloading and we are saved.

City of 10,000 Buddhas

Cultivate the Way; end the self. While bowing I saw Kuan Yin Bodhisattva and for some reason tears welled up. This is the traditional way of taking refuge.

News From True Cultivators

I resolve to overcome physical sloth by performing prostrations, for example and mental torpor by making the recitals that accompany each prostration, for example. Strange physiognomy, winging and whipping a twisted metal strip.

Hsuan Hua Biography

Before we even start the groups are forming to check this weird number out.

With One Heart Bowing

For a third time, I take refuge in the Dharma and resolve that with all beings I will enter deeply into the sutra treasure whereby my wisdom may grow as vast as the ocean.
