Using Technology to Motivate Students to Learn Social Studies

Some focus on the cognitive components of learning while others focus on behavioral influences. For instance, internet users are as likely as anyone else to visit with their neighbors in person.

Social Media and Teen Anxiety

Whereas most studies of core social networks focus exclusively on face-to-face contact, this analysis looked at the many ways that people maintain social networks using communication media. One technology trend that has come under increasing scrutiny involves full-time online schools, particularly cyber charters.

Guiding Principles for Use of Technology with Early Learners

Facebook is only one site for social networking.

Using Technology to Motivate Students to Learn Social Studies

Majorities of parents say they are at least somewhat concerned about their child ever being the target of online predators, accessing sexually explicit content, accessing violent content online or ever being bullied or harassed online.

Edutopia
