But because few people understand these terms, they assume the author is making a wise point because they would rather skip trying to understand it over taking out the dictionary and looking up half of the words in this deliberately convoluted sentence. It is due to the enlightened liberality of Augustus that the period of his rule was the most brilliant epoch of Roman literature. Though others often conclude that in other journals such strategies were used to disguise gender or achieve publication in heavily edited or censored newspaper outlets, this was not the case in letters contributed by women to the Aberdeen Daily Journal and the Aberdeen Free Press between 1900 and 1918, where the newspapers operated an open letter policy, publishing all material sent to them with little gatekeeping or editorial censoring.
