Modern British Artists' Biographies

This impressive start to her career faltered, particularly after she married, in 1925, the artist Stanley Spencer 1891—1959. This period of study was interrupted by National Service and he returned to the RCA, 1953-56. An exhibition catalogue for a retrospective exhibition held at the Royal Academy of Arts, London, 1994.

Badmin S R

Born in Glasgow in 1865, he studied at the Edinburgh Art School.

Badmin S R

Toulouse-Lautrec and Belleroche were exact contemporaries, who first met at the age of eighteen. Borne also showed at the RA 1932—61 , the SWA 1933—71 , the RSBS — to which she was elected associate, and the RSMPG — of which she served as vice president.

Schwabe, Randolph 1885

A prominent Member of the Royal Society of Painter-Etchers and Gravers. Although he was a skilled 'plein air' painter, many works were produced in his studio at his home; his subjects were the Essex countryside, scenes from his many visits to Italy and to Mallorca, and his much-loved garden at Place House. His work is in the GAC and the NPG.
