Feminism and equality

Or because we just think that things will work out fine if we let them be — that The Invisible Hand or The Technosphere will mysteriously sort them out? Had we not better plunge off the bridge into the river; give up the game; declare the whole of human life is a mistake and so end it? Across Europe, from the sixteenth to the early twentieth century, the news of the deeds of criminals and their subsequent executions was delivered via song, often printed on cheap, single-sheet broadsides or in small, book-like pamphlets, as well as passed on orally or via manuscript.
