Biography

While we rejoice in his safe arrival we cannot but regret that ill health should again have been the cause of his Royal Highness's return to this country, especially when we reflect on the motives which induced him to quit England. The king's surviving daughters were all childless and past likely childbearing age. At a very early stage Edward Augustus lost the favour of his father, and he never regained it.

Biography

Although it is supposed to be the love story about the Duke of Kent and his lady, the book deals with other matters a lot of the time, especially the Duke's military and political postings.
