FBI Agent's Accidental Document Dump—and Uncle Sam's Fear of Antiwar Activists

Origins in Hysteria COINTELPRO had its origins in the anticommunist fervor of the mid-twentieth century.

Teach

By mid-May 1970 an uneasy calm returned to the state's campuses, and the heyday of the Vietnam War protest movement in Oklahoma was over.

Why Is There No Antiwar Movement?

An online archive, including recordings and transcripts of many of the participants, is maintained by the Library of the University of California, Berkeley. The history of the antiwar movement needed to be portrayed, including the crucial role of Vietnam Veterans Against the War. CPUSA membership, hitting a peak of in 1942 — well below the near-apocalyptic levels the FBI made it out to be, but far from insignificant — dropped to less than 2,800 by the late 1960s.

Surveillance abuse

He is the secretary of state and bagman to Gus Hall, the leader and chairman of CPUSA.

The FBI's secret counterintelligence program

UC Berkeley professors and Robert A. Because they came from a working-class background, nobody wants to call them out.
