As when a master of a family, in taking an account, casteth up the summs of all the bills of expence, into one sum; and not regarding how each bill is summed up, by those that give them in account; nor what it is he payes for; he advantages himself no more, than if he allowed the account in grosse, trusting to every of the accountants skill and honesty; so also in Reasoning of all other things, he that takes up conclusions on the trust of Authors, and doth not fetch them from the first Items in every Reckoning, which are the significations of names settled by definitions , loses his labour; and does not know any thing; but onely beleeveth.

Galli, Giorgio, Il pensiero politico occidentale. Storia e prospettive.

That Understanding which is peculiar to man, is the Understanding not onely his will; but his conceptions and thoughts, by the sequell and contexture of the names of things into Affirmations, Negations, and other formes of Speech: And of this kinde of Understanding I shall speak hereafter. To obey, is to Honour; because no man obeys them, whom they think have no power to help, or hurt them The Scriptures by the Spirit of God in man, mean a mans spirit, inclined to Godlinesse.
