And if the Bible could deceive you about an important thing like that, it could deceive you about the Incarnation and the Atonement. Book Summary: Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors--Evelyn Underhill 1875-1941 , May Sinclair 1863-1946 , and Mary Webb 1881-1927 --to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth-century moment encompassing the First World War. She began writing poetry, and continued to study the philosophers and new scientific topics of the era, such as heredity.

May Sinclair

It would be worse for her than it had ever been for Aunt Lavvy who had actually known Dr.
