What is restorative justice in criminal justice?

At first, no one admitted responsibility.

What is restorative justice in criminal justice?

We literally talked about everything. It is comprised of a set of research- and evidence-based practices designed to create safe, joyful, and engaging class- room and school communities for both students and teachers.

Restorative justice: how it works by Liebmann, Marian, 1942

It's just something that I think connects to what we see in our justice systems. And I think particularly in our schools, in addition to wanting to promote positive school culture and wanting to reduce discipline, I found myself doing this work as wanting to give kids the skills to be better, and to be better beyond the academic environment, but to be better for themselves, and their families, and the families they haven't had already.

What is restorative justice in criminal justice?

So, I think that Montgomery, and the South in general, they've got something to say.
