About thirty English merchants of whom fifteen at the most are settled.

Rebellions of 1837

But Mackenzie was a staunch free-trader, while the Liberals from the maritime provinces were opposed to any increase in the tariff on the many things they consumed but did not produce.

The Project Gutenberg E

Council, 714; re repairs on Gov't. It is the Canadians only who would be sufferers by an exception, as Canadian bills to a very large amount are in the possession of French merchants and the rest may be sent to France and nobody be able to distinguish which is French and which Canadian property.
