An Overview of Abraham Lincoln's Life

Harris, whose first meeting with Lincoln in a log school-house has been previously described in these pages, subsequently became a clerk in Lincoln's law- office at Springfield, and furnishes some excellent reminiscences of that interesting period. But let him patiently wait, and the ripe pear at length falls into his lap. Fear is a crippling thing, especially to the entrepreneur.

Learning Humility From Lincoln

THIS ACTIVITY WILL CENTER ON DOUGLASS'S WORK DURING THE PERIOD OF 1860-1865. He fired numerous generals before finally settling on Grant, more out of political expediency rather than military necessity. The emotions on the people's faces easily portray how sad they were to be enslaved, and I pointed out that a long time ago people had to wear chains and work hard.

Abe's Honest Words: The Life of Abraham Lincoln by Doreen Rappaport

An evil tree cannot bring forth good fruit. President Polk, a Jacksonian Democrat, had devoted most of his message to defending his conduct of the war against Mexico.

Why Did People Call Abraham Lincoln "Honest Abe"?

He believed that honesty is integral to being successful not only in man's eyes but in God's eyes also, and it must be practiced. When something doesn't work, that just means you must change direction in some way and move on to another idea. Lincoln was sworn in on March 4, 1861.

Lincoln was a very interesting and enigmatic figure, one that would surprise most Americans if they got past the log cabin and beard. This gentleman was conversing with the President at a time during the War when things looked very dark. Strive to become all that life created you to be.
