Jewish History: Tevet 19

However, as Attorney Bishara argued in the petition, 80% close to 2 million donums of the JNF's lands were transferred to it by the state in 1949 and 1950, giving the JNF a special status under Israeli law.

Supporters celebrate joy of Israel's 70th anniversary with music, torch lighting

Thus land was transferred liberally to JNF in the south.

9 Things You Didn't Know About Tu Bishvat

It also planted 100 parks on Palestinian land. In 2011, I publicly resigned from the JNF DC board when I learned that the KKL-JNF with the Israeli government and settler organizations to evict Palestinians from their homes in East Jerusalem, hiding behind Himanuta as a front organization to evict its residents. The old man was right, as the 1900s brought a rebirth of the land of Israel.

Masorti Movement warns JNF move to buy West Bank land may endanger entire fund

From a barren, swampy, and unlivable land, Israel was transformed into a green land, filled with trees, covered with vineyards, and an oasis of wildlife and water.
