Taborite communes

Sparks of Liberty: An Insider's Memoir of Radio Liberty. Polish leader and Russian reformer would later recall secretly listening to the broadcasts despite the heavy jamming. Thank you for your well-written article.

BBC NEWS

That Cuba is a tropical version of totalitarian hell is beyond dispute. Intermarriage was not uncommon look at Brazil across the ocean and Portugal was the first European national soccer team to field African players, many who are still revered as national heroes like Eusebio.

Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty

European operations have been significantly reduced since the end of the Cold War. At least Western capitalism has a human face; the Chinese are only out to exploit us. I know this is controversial but you can't put all European colonial experience in Africa in the same basket.

Taborite communes

In 1958, the Central Committee mentioned that the sum spent on jamming was greater than the sum spent on domestic and international broadcasting combined.

Communists take power in Czechoslovakia

My Thirty-two Years in Intelligence and Espionage Against the West. And as developments in 1981 would amply demonstrate, two of the Polish regime's institutions remained relatively untouched: the army and the secret police. One in five Cubans left their homeland by any means possible after Castro took over power — eventually including his.
