Had they freed themselves from, progressed beyond, these older methods of resource extraction? Further, when discussed at all, the history of hunting has been construed too narrowly; for many, the chase is simply an aspect of elite behavior to be included in discussions of everyday life in medieval Europe. A few months ago, while researching the subject of dogs in Chinese art, I spotted it and opened it in the hope it might have some useful information on hunting dogs. What a gold mine of information! Wars sometimes began as hunts and ended as celebratory chases.
