Denmark and Sweden have resisted the Maastricht treaty and the adoption of the Euro. With the emergence of a multi-polar world in which India is poised to play a major role in international institutions such as the United Nations, it will be interesting to see how India strengthens regional institutions such as the SAARC. However, our experience shows that, depending on the country, the positives of a PMO improved coordination, management of progress toward targets, increased ability to learn and adjust implementation over time can greatly outweigh the negatives high transaction costs, the potential for added complexity in political channels.
