The possibility of such a settlement will likely reemerge during the next few years. It seems like Coll and Vise at one point considered having this be about how SEC chief Shad's personal life kept him off the reservation, which might have worked gross as it might be and if that had been combined with the disturbing spousal abuse going on at the enforcement level, there was a general thesis that the various 80's banking scandals--which arguably set the groundwork for today's financial difficulties--was directly tied to the collapse of personal re Could've been better, honestly.
