

Report of the fourth decennial Indian Missionary Conference held in Madras, December 11th-18th, 1902.

Christian Literature Society - Report of the Fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference Held in Madras, December 11th

Description: -

- Indians of South America -- Brazil -- Folklore.
- Bengal (India) -- Social life and customs.
- Bengal (India) -- Religious life and customs.
- Oral tradition -- India -- Bengal.
- Folklore -- India -- Bengal.
- Fighting bull -- Japan -- Okinawa-ken.
- Bullfights -- Japan -- Okinawa-ken.
- Missions -- India -- Congresses. Report of the fourth decennial Indian Missionary Conference held in Madras, December 11th-18th, 1902.
- Report of the fourth decennial Indian Missionary Conference held in Madras, December 11th-18th, 1902.

Notes: Includes indexes.

This edition was published in 1903

Filesize: 36.85 MB

Tags: #The #Archives #of #the #Church #in #North #India

[PDF] Report Of The Fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference Held

The missionaries served in the Presbytery of Kathiawar and Gujarat, a presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

Table of Contents: Report of the fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference, held in Madras, December 11th

At first it was accommodated in the IP Mission High School, Ahmedabad and student accommodation was in the group of houses still known as Dr Taylor's Chawl. This is a 409 page book, containing 128282 words and 2 pictures.

Report of the Fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference Held in Madras, December 11th

Get book and read anywhere and anytime you want. Therefore, you will see the original copyright references, library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world , and other notations in the work. In 1863, the IP Mission restarted missionary work in Ahmedabad, the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel having withdrawn in 1851.

Buy Report of the Fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference Held in Madras, December 11Th

Further Christian villages were founded at Ranipur near Ahmedabad 1862 and later at Wallacepur, Khadana, Porda, Anand, Brookhill and Nadiad among others. Initially housed in Baroda it moved to Ahmedabad in 1953 to the former Stevenson College buildings.

The Archives of the Church in North India

These administrative changes reflected the growing strength of the indigenous Church and the resulting gradual withdrawal of the Irish Presbyterian missionaries from Gujarat. Alexander Kerr died in August 1841 but the commitment of the Irish Presbyterian Church to the area continued and by 1843 four new missionaries had arrived and mission stations were set up in Porbander and Gogha.

The Archives of the Church in North India

After the formation of the Church of North India in 1970 it continued as a joint CNI and Methodist Institution for some years.

Buy Report of the Fourth Decennial Indian Missionary Conference Held in Madras, December 11Th

Within the United States, you may freely copy and distribute this work, as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work. The famine of 1899-1900 led to the expansion of the orphanages run by the mission.

Related Books

- Fourth Congress of the European Society of Contact Dermatitis - programme and abstracts
- Esquisse de cours 11e année - english eae3e cours préemploi
- Tentative outline of proposed course of study in German, grades 10, 11, and 12.
- Port-Royal insolite - édition critique du Recueil de choses diverses
- Japans relations with Britain and Europe - the present and the future.