Economic Development

The incarceration rate of 294 per 100,000 people is lower than that of the city as a whole. Elizabeth Avenue supported heavy industry; Broad Street, commerce and the professions.

PVD Planning News

The city has recognized the effort of the Historical Society to engage and publicize the civic contributions of many ethnic and racial communities, especially during the 20 th century and has supported this civic work with CDBG grants. It was not an accident that the city experienced many skirmishes and sent participants to the straguerillategic engagements of Trenton and Monmouth. In 1986 he became president of Island Ford, a Ford motor dealership on Staten island, New York.

Westminster College

In his six year tenure on this body, he was proudest of his effort to get Martin Luther King honored on the City Plaza. The building can board 15 women and includes a gymnasium.

Regeneration

It is where the earliest buildings were constructed, the road traveled by farmers bringing produce to market, and the path of travelers leaving town for the rest of New Jersey and other colonies. The company remained an economic mainstay of Elizabeth until 1982.

Baltimore Sun

We believe a good living environment is the foundation for a happy, healthy life.

Westminster College

He was appointed by King George II whom he had met while in Europe to be Governor of New Jersey from 1747 to his death in 1757. In 1930 Anthonys family operated a restaurant in Glendale and it may have been there that his culinary knowledge joined his chemical interests and the Christian Brothers need for a director of their small vineyard for sacramental and medicinal purposes.
