How to Make Sure Your Cookbook Deal Is Worth It

We want to run our businesses correctly and safely for both our customers and staff. The coronavirus is forcing professionals to embrace changes and therefore restaurateurs have gone hammers and tongs on marketing their businesses through digital mode — the place where the customers are available presently.

Self-order kiosks and AI operated drive thru give us a minimal contact way to place and pay for our meals. There are a few things a lawyer can negotiate within an agency agreement and, similarly, that an agency can limit within a publishing agreement , including some bits around the edges and some limiting in the scope of representation and approval over expenses, but for the most part, these are standard documents. The upshot This sounds like a lot, especially considering how hard the actual work of writing a cookbook is to begin with.
