Marketing & Outreach

The program contracted with local non-profit organizations and businesses to provide and train the energy advisors, so program staff could focus on other efforts. Making your site easy to find through frequently used search engines is an important strategy for promoting your program.

All Programs

A comprehensive of more than 140 programs across the country suggests that programs engage in a concerted priming effort in the target area before canvassing the neighborhood. As you develop a marketing and outreach plan, be sure to coordinate among all program staff to ensure that the activities in other program areas, such as , , and , will be featured in or aligned with your marketing and outreach activities. The program leveraged the credibility of trusted neighbors to show guests where energy was being wasted and explain ways to improve comfort while saving energy.

Implementation

Student chapters promote the goals and objectives of SAME, and encourage the advancement of careers in architecture, engineering and construction by connecting college students with professionals in these areas.

About the Certificate

These challenges were clearly magnified and expedited in 2020, based on our collective experiences with navigating COVID and nationwide calls for anti-racism movements.

Implementation

The research paper, , analyzed the most effective methods for encouraging environmentally sustainable behaviors. Participants should, however, feel like they are winners, and not losers, so they have a positive experience with your program

Marketing & Outreach

He and I are both committed to getting something very significant done in the coming months. We will harness this work and the opportunities before us to design our future through the integration of education, scholarship, diverse partnerships and our global community. The Near Eastside Neighborhood Sweeps Program contributed to the nearly 1,200 home energy upgrades that were completed through the City of Indianapolis Better Buildings Program as of December 2013, and many homeowners went on to complete additional upgrades with assistance from the EcoHouse loan program.
