Picasso's Picassos.

It can take months and months just to get an answer. Hundreds of those works have been sold in galleries and at auction; many more are suspected of having been sold privately. Picasso painted in La Lampe the apotheosis of Marie-Thérèse, transfiguring her sweet, compliant nature and delectable physicality into the exalted image of a goddess, his idolized muse, in the form of a head modeled in lily-white plaster, appropriately textured in thickly impastoed oil paint.
