Physiology of Astigmatism

Similarly, we must be sensitive to and suspicious of alternate or compounding pathology in our dry eye patients non-responsive to core ocular surface therapies.

Unmasking the Dry Eye Masqueraders

Our study indicates a reduction in grey matter in the approximate lesion projection zones of primary visual cortex.

Gaze changes with binocular versus monocular viewing in age

The first point of the measurement is 40 cm.

Double Vision (Diplopia) Guide: Causes, Symptoms and Treatment Options

Small amount of hypermetropia in young patients is usually corrected by their accommodation, without any defects in vision.
