Life

Water used to recover nahcolite would be recycled into the process. During reclamation, a water supply would be needed for initial stages of flushing and cooling. One side fretted that the accident demonstrated that nuclear power was dangerous.

Events of Nondestructive Testing (NDT)

PMio is one of the six criteria air pollutants specified under Title I of the CAA.

Energy and Power Generation Handbook: Established and Emerging Technologies

Physician reporting compared with medical-record review to identify adverse medical events.

Expat Dating in Germany

To help set priorities, I constructed for myself a probabilistic risk analysis model in the form of an influence diagram Figure 4. This perception may be the result of hindsight bias Fischhoff, 1975; Hawkins and Hastie, 1990 , that is, after an accident, individuals often believe that the accident should have been considered highly likely, if not inevitable, by those who observed the system prior to the accident.
