Romantics demonstrated a high level of moral enthusiasm, commitment to individualism and the unfolding of the self, an emphasis on intuitive perception, and the assumption that the natural world was inherently good, while human society was corrupt. Conan Doyle wrote four novels and 56 featuring Holmes, which were published between 1887 and 1927. Consequently, violent writings were forced underground, and many of those who had served in the Interregnum attenuated their positions in the Restoration.

A Brief Overview of British Literary Periods

Another most popular author of the period under consideration was Lord Alfred Tennyson.
