Southern Religion

Calhoun, believed that slavery, with its strict and unchanging social hierarchy, made for a more stable society than that of the Northern states where wage laborers of diverse backgrounds engaged actively in democratic politics. With origins in various efforts to expand their proslavery order throughout the Atlantic in the 1850s, Confederates envisioned and attempted to create a transcontinental empire throughout the Southwest throughout the war.

Reconstruction vs. Redemption

In 1917, United States declared war on Germany, in 1941, Roosevelt waited until the enemy attacked at Pearl Harbor. Craig vehemently denied allegations that he is gay and claimed that he has a wide stance and was trying to pick up a piece of paper in the bathroom stall. Calhoun and other pre-Civil War Democrats used these theories in their proslavery rhetoric as they struggled to maintain their grip on the Southern economy.

Politics of the Southern United States

Private ownership of gold bullion and certificates was banned and would remain so until 1975.

Christian nationalism clearly evident in Capitol riot

Later, this period came to be referred to as.
