Numerous Aramaic copies of Enoch have been found among the Dead Sea Scrolls, and a passage of the book is even quoted from in the New Testament book of Jude where Enoch is referred to as a prophet. The Rock was Christ and the drink was spiritual.

Returning the Book of Revelation to Its Historical Context

Two lesser known works of Jewish apocalyptic, both written after the destruction of the Jerusalem Temple in 70 A. Many theories have been advanced, but it appears most probable that this number symbolizes the name of Nero.

Books by Witness Lee from Living Stream Ministry

Thus it became standard to begin any account of holy wells with the statement that the Christian church had adopted them from the pagans and replaced the heathen gods with Christian saints, in order to win people over to the new religion more smoothly. Besides those previously named, other examples include works attributed to Abraham and Enoch.
