Political Parties and Electoral Systems

The Communist Party gained votes, winning eleven more seats in the Reichstag.

Electoral Systems —

The only Independent MP elected for an English parliamentary seat in 2005, secured victory on the back of the success of a single-issue hospital campaign in Kidderminster; a campaign which resulted in the election of district and county councillors, before the eventual general election victory of Dr Richard Taylor. Rather, today the system mainly works as a handicap for the less populous rural states which at times depend on the handicap to win; see.
