Statutory Sick Pay (SSP) Scheme due to Coronavirus (COVID)

Whilst clarity is welcomed, it would appear that in some areas, the latest publications have merely created more uncertainty as to how the CJRS operates. This period of sickness is known as a period of incapacity for work PIW and may include weekends and bank holidays. Most employers are more generous than is mandated by law — tending to give employees a certain amount of leeway when they take sick leave.

When to start and stop statutory sick pay

Those not normally entitled to SSP such as the self-employed will receive Employment and Support Allowance. Follow Steps 1 to 4 of the weekly checksheet in and divide the figure in Step 4 by the number of weeks wages actually paid. SSP must be processed via the payroll for PAYE and Class 1 employee and employer NI purposes.
