Cargoes for Crusoes /

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIENCE I had now been in this unhappy island above ten months. Then I called a council—that is to say in my thoughts—whether I should take back the raft; but this appeared impracticable: so I resolved to go as before, when the tide was down; and I did so, only that I stripped before I went from my hut, having nothing on but my chequered shirt, a pair of linen drawers, and a pair of pumps on my feet. Fascinating literary tour through through America.

George Fort Gibbs

But I had no need to be venturous, for I had no want of food, and of that which was very good too, especially these three sorts, viz. During the , he had taken part in the aboard the steam-sloop and had been aboard one of the ships that chased the on its dash down the Mississippi. Very good+ in dust jacket with protective plastic wrapper.

Jeffery Farnol's Gestes by Grant Overton

My next work was to view the country, and seek a proper place for my habitation, and where to stow my goods to secure them from whatever might happen. I call him my neighbour, because his plantation lay next to mine, and we went on very sociably together.
