What have we done wrong to deserve this? Thus the varying ways of conducting the on the Plains insisted on the presence of the Sacred Woman at the heart of the ritual. According to Schwarz, the Navajo origin and creation stories are a charter for life, constituting a philosophical system that underlies the cultural construction of the Navajo world and their role in it. The distinction between gender and sex is perhaps too foreign for general acceptance, and certainly the circumstances of invasive cultural drifts onto the reservations complicated this area of culture.
