How Principals Can Provide Teacher Support

In classroom discussions, face-to-face meetings, and online discussion boards teachers shared their experiences and constraints, while university educators and colleagues provided possible solutions. Case studies depict real-life situations in which problems need to be solved. WATCH: How to pick the right chart for your data In this consulting case study example we can see that a chart has been used to demonstrate the difference in lead value within the Lead Elves case study.

Effective Teacher Professional Development

Check out this modern pattern design example of a case study below: In this case study example, the short and long term goals are clearly distinguished by light blue boxes, and placed side by side so that they are easy to compare. These teachers had varying levels of teaching experience, ranging from 1 to 17 years.
