Presbyterian Church v. Hull Church :: 393 U.S. 440 (1969) :: Justia US Supreme Court Center

A dispute arose between petitioner, the general church, and two local churches in Savannah, Georgia -- the respondents, Hull Memorial Presbyterian Church and Eastern Heights Presbyterian Church -- over control of the properties used until then by the local churches. Now, in the 1768 Assembly elections, Livingstonites used religion as a wedge issue. Holy Warriors: The Abolitionists and American Slavery.

Presbyterianism and the American Revolution in the Middle Colonies (1).

We granted certiorari to consider the First Amendment questions raised. But Southerners, especially those in the Deep South, viewed the election of Lincoln as a usurpation of their right to have representative government, to have a man elected President who represented the interests of all Americans, including Southerners. The robber barons of today greatly enrich themselves by controlling the information reaching others.
